Prepare Your Home Now for Cold Weather

Changing leaves and dropping temperatures signal that winter is not far off. Follow these simple tips to stay safe and help save energy and money this winter.

- Have your furnace tuned up annually. Call your local plumber or heating contractor for a furnace check.
- Keep the area around your heat pump or furnace clear to ensure proper air circulation.
- Install a carbon monoxide (CO) detector and ensure it is in good working order.
- Caulk cracks between window frames or door frames and walls. Caulk both inside and outside your home.
- Weather-strip the doors, insulate your outside wall outlet plates, and check thresholds for tight seals.
- Invest in a setback or programmable thermostat to automatically raise and lower the temperature at designated times to fit your family's lifestyle.
- Install a humidifier. It will keep your home at the proper humidity level and keep you comfortable at lower temperatures.

Part 2:

What is Involved with Predicting PSNH Service Restoration Times During a Major Storm?

We can't control the weather, but we do try to work around it. As PSNH monitors the weather, our staff puts our system restoration plan into action when a major storm is approaching. Restoring power to our customers is our number one priority.

PSNH's service territory covers more than 5,500 square miles and 211 communities. During and after a major storm, customer calls provide valuable information on where outages have occurred. We also patrol areas of our distribution system to assess the damage and prepare service restoration projections. Once the assessments are complete, the emergency operations centers develop strategies to restore power to the greatest amount of customers in the shortest amount of time – safely.

All restoration estimates can change, and are subject to a number of variables that arise during the repair process. Although we always strive to give prompt and accurate answers about restoration times, it is often difficult for us to determine precise times in the first 24-48 hours after major storm damage. If you have access to a computer, you may check the status of an outage by visiting our website at psnh.com and clicking on STORM CENTER.

PSNH employees work around-the-clock so that customers have their power restored as soon as possible. No matter what the cause, PSNH's primary goal is to work safely and efficiently. We appreciate your patience during these times.

Living with Energy will conclude this three-part series next month with "Is There Any Way I Can Help During an Outage?"

Lineworker Safety: Keep Utility Poles Clear!

SIGNS THAT ARE TACKED TO UTILITY POLES CAN BE VERY DANGEROUS. MANY PEOPLE DON'T REALIZE THAT POSTING SIGNS ENDANGERS LINeworkERS WHO HAVE TO CLIMB THOSE POLES TO MAKE REPAIRS. STAPLES, NAILS, AND TACKS USED TO HANG SIGNS FROM POLES – AS WELL AS THE SIGNS THEMSELVES – CAN CAUSE VERY SERIOUS DAMAGE. LINeworkERS RISK INJURY TO THEMSELVES AND DAMAGE TO THEIR EQUIPMENT AND PROTECTIVE CLOTHING. IN ADDITION TO BEING DANGEROUS, POSTING SIGNS ON UTILITY POLES IS ALSO ILLEGAL IN NEW HAMPSHIRE (NH RSA 236:75).

If you're planning a yard sale or some other activity in your neighborhood, please do not post or hang signs to advertise it on utility poles.

Thank you for helping to keep our lineworkers safe!

Neighbor Helping Neighbor Donations Needed

PSNH established the Neighbor Helping Neighbor Fund in 1986 in an effort to assist needy families who have difficulty paying their utility bills, but who do not qualify for local financial assistance or low income federal fuel programs. The program has since expanded to include other New Hampshire electric and natural gas utilities and, last year, the Fund was able to help more than 1,300 families experiencing financial hardships.

By adding an extra dollar when you pay your PSNH electric bill—or by sending a larger contribution directly to the Neighbor Helping Neighbor Fund in the special envelope included with your utility bill at various times during the year—you can help other NH families in need. With fuel costs rising, your tax-deductible donation will be greatly appreciated by these families. You can also be assured that 100 percent of your donation will go to help pay for these families' electric and/or natural gas bills. All administrative costs to manage the Fund are paid for by the utilities.

For more information about contributing to the Neighbor Helping Neighbor Fund, or to apply for assistance, please contact your local Community Action Agency (CAA). The list of local CAAs is available on www.psnh.com in NEIGHBOR HELPING NEIGHBOR under Community on the main menu, or by calling PSNH at 1-800-662-7764.
